PANA FRIDAY FARM MARKET
“GROWING”

DOLLAR SANDWICH COOKOUT UNDER THE BIG TOP THIS FRIDAY

The Pana Friday Farm Market is “Growing” after a slow start due to rainy conditions. After the first four weeks garden vegetables crops, many needed replanting, are now starting to come in. Green beans, new potatoes, cucumbers, cabbage, zucchini, onions, some early tomatoes, and even pumpkin blossoms are increasing in production as well as availability.

Also growing is the number of local vendors. The first Pana Friday Market only had four vendors as early crops were limited due to weather. This Friday, July 3, 2009, nine vendors are registered. With the 4th of July weekend and family outings and picnics planned it is perfect timing to shop the Friday Farm Market with set up at 3:30 p.m. and selling to begin at 4:30 p.m.

Also featured this Friday is a “$-Dollar Bill Sandwich Cookout” under the big top with Dollar Sandwiches cooked on site by Pana’s Midstate Meats. The cookout will feature $1.00 Brats, $1.00 B.B.Q. Sandwich, and $1.00 Pork Patty Sandwich, also available Soda, Water, Chips. Seating will be available inside the big top.
