

Live Music for Friday's Pana Days

Big Shake Daddies will be returning to the entertainment stage for Pana Days on Friday May 15 evening from 7:30 to 10:30. Friday's entertainment is sponsored by First National Bank of Pana.

Big Shake Daddies is a band of veteran musicians from Central Illinois formed in 2005 to perform a wide variety of popular music from different eras, from Swing, Blues, Jazz, Motown, and Soul, to high energy Rock & Roll. Their shows feature a four piece horn section and female vocalist.

Band members include Mike Dean on trombone, Dwain McAfee on trumpet, both of Pana; former Pana resident Rob Buchanan, now of Glen Carbon, on drums; Don Sellers of Hillsboro on tenor saxophone; Max Slazinik on bari sax, Mark Dawson on bass, both of Staunton; Todd Anderson of Collinsville on keyboards; Rick Gasparin of Springfield on guitar; and Linda Masters of Carlinville as the featured vocalist.

The band has entertained at many events in Central Illinois including past shows at Pana Days. Join First National Bank of Pana in welcoming Big Shake Daddies to Pana Days Friday May 15th. Beginning at 7:30pm, you can listen and dance to some of your favorite songs.
